FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

TWO SENTENCED AS PART OF MULTI-KILOGRAM COCAINE DISTRIBUTION ORGANIZATION

Susan W. Brooks, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, announced that GARY LISTER, 29, Glendale, Arizona and KENYA TRAYLOR, 29, Phoenix, Arizona were sentenced to 175 months and 120 months, respectively, imprisonment today by U.S. District Chief Judge Larry J. McKinney following their guilty pleas to conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute and to distribute in excess of 5 kilograms of cocaine and in excess of 50 grams of cocaine base. This case was the result of a two year investigation by the United States Drug Enforcement Administration and Postal Inspection Service.

This investigation revealed that, from the spring 1998 until December of 2002, LISTER distributed multi-kilograms of cocaine and cocaine base in the Indianapolis area. At the direction of LISTER, TRAYLOR transported and delivered kilogram quantities of cocaine from the Arizona area to the Indianapolis, Indiana area to LISTER and others and then transported the drug proceeds back to Arizona and delivered them to LISTER.

According to Assistant United States Attorney John E. Dowd, who prosecuted the case for the government, Judge McKinney also imposed 5 years supervised release following LISTER and TRAYLOR's imprisonment. LISTER received a $2,000 fine.
